FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 03/31/99

[redacted] was contacted at his residence by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] assigned to the Allentown Office of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) and [redacted] Chief of Police, Bethlehem Township, PA. Prior to any questioning, [redacted] was furnished the identification of SA [redacted] and Chief [redacted] and the nature of the interview.

b7C

SA [redacted] rang [redacted] doorbell and [redacted] answered SA [redacted] through a front window of residence. SA [redacted] requested to speak to [redacted] but [redacted] advised that he was painting. SA [redacted] again asked to speak with [redacted] and he advised that he was not dressed. SA [redacted] advised that he would wait for [redacted] to get dressed for the purpose of speaking with him. Immediately thereafter, [redacted] answered the front door but would not allow SA [redacted] or Chief [redacted] into his residence. The interview of [redacted] was conducted on his front doorsteps.

SA [redacted] provided [redacted] with a photocopy of a postcard and asked if [redacted] recognized it. [redacted] responded that he had prepared the postcard and forwarded same to the Senator's Office, Philadelphia, PA. [redacted] advised that he has written letters in the past to Senator SPECTER, Philadelphia, PA. SA [redacted] asked [redacted] about the reference in the postcard of everybody being dead? [redacted] responded that the postcard was a take-off birthday machine cinema. It showed a French military hat, CHARLES DEGALL. It was a French military cap with a birthday cake. It was an intelligence sketch. SA [redacted] asked [redacted] about the phrase "I'll roll your staff out." [redacted]

On March 30, 1999, [redacted] was interviewed at [redacted] Pennsylvania (PA). [redacted] admitted writing the letters and postcard to Senator Specter's office and advised that the postcard was a French political pressure satire, depicting a French military cap with a birthday cake. [redacted] was admonished concerning the penalty for a violation of the extortion statute, and he advised that he would stop writing letters to Senator Specter's office.

b7c

Based on a conversation between Special Agent (SA) [redacted] and Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] on April 9, 1999, it was agreed that the facts of this case do not meet the guidelines for prosecution in violation of Title 18, U.S.C. Section 876. AUSA [redacted] advised that the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (EDPA) declines prosecution, therefore our office is closing this case.
